

MERCY COLLEGE
HOFFMAN AMBASSADOR PROGRAM
APPLICATION for 2017-2018

The Mercy College Hoffman Ambassador Program is a group of ten students committed to service to the Toledo and Mercy College communities. Ambassadors are provided a variety of opportunities to enhance civic responsibility, leadership development, and service-learning experiences.

- Hoffman Ambassadors will gain a better understanding of values, integrity, ethics, and accountability through training, common reading, and programming on and off campus.
- Ambassadors will meet bi-weekly (2 hours) with the Ambassador Coordinator.
The first meeting will be held at the Student Leadership Retreat, August 18-19, 2017, held at _____ . Save those dates!
Projected subsequent meetings will be at a time that fits with everyone's schedule.
- Ambassadors are required to complete 250 Mercy College Hoffman Ambassador hours within the year commitment. Hours include service, training (meetings), and leadership workshops.
Participation at each Mercy College Open House is expected. Helping with as many New Student Orientation days as possible is also an expectation.
- Hoffman Ambassadors will receive a $3,000 scholarship ($1,500 per semester) from the College.
- Applications are due to Sister Sally Bohnett, SND, by Monday, July 31, 2017, 5:00 PM in the Campus Ministry/ Service Learning Office, Room 5720. Sister Sally is the Coordinator of the program.
- Interviews will be held August 2, 3, 4, 2017. It is preferable to return your application in person so your interview time can be set. If this is not possible, please contact me by phone or email: 419-251-1866; sally.bohnett@mercycollege.edu.

Mercy College Hoffman Ambassador candidates must possess the following characteristics:

- Enthusiasm and a positive attitude about the Toledo community and Mercy College
- Demonstrated responsibility and commitment; understanding and support of the Mercy College Mission and Core Values
- Leadership potential and experience in church and/or civic community
- Desire to serve in the community and at Mercy College / Open to participating in Campus Ministry/ Service Learning programming
- Interest in developing personal leadership skills
- Maintain good academic standing
- Enrollment in a minimum of 6 credit hours at Mercy College in an Associate or Bachelor degree program
